

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE COUNTY OF PERSON

HISTORY

Person County was born from a division of Caswell County in 1789. The county was made an almost perfect square with the county seat of Roxboro being almost exactly in the center. Person was named for Brigadier General Thomas Person of Granville County during a time in which Revolutionary soldiers were leading citizens. In 1870 the population of Person County was estimated to be about 11,700. In the year 2006 that number had increased to 37,341. There are still nine townships that make up Person County: Allensville, Bushy Fork, Cunningham, Flat River, Holloway, Mt. Tirzah, Olive Hill, Roxboro, and Woodsdale.

From the very beginning, Person County's 400 square mile area was farmland and forests. Tobacco was the root of the Person County economy and for many years was the only industry. The railroad coming to Person County in 1890 was a catalyst for progress. Tobacco warehouses were built, banks began to be organized, and new stores and homes were being built to accommodate the new citizens that were coming into the county. As strong as tobacco still is, in the early 1900s other industry began to take hold in Person County including copper mining and cotton mills which both helped to broaden the economy.

Person County has come along way since its early days and offers strong and vital communities for its residents and more than adequate opportunity for growth and longevity. The variety of services and activities available in Person County makes it an attractive area for its present and future citizens.

Person County offers a strategic location for business and industry, being within an hour's drive of North Carolina's two major economic centers, the Research Triangle Park (Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh) and the Piedmont Triad (Greensboro, Winston-Salem and High Point), and a two-hour drive of Richmond, Virginia.
